Deeper in Christ, further into the world.

January 2017 Volume 51-01

A Great Year Ahead

By Gerrit S. Dawson, Senior Pastor

Our church begins the New Year with great opportunities for studying God's Word and living out his peace in our city. As you recall, for five Sundays after the flood, members of Abounding Love Ministries worshipped with us. Several of their congregation even joined our fall small groups. We've directed work crews and resources their way and, at last, they are ready to re-open on Hooper Road. We are all invited for their festive re-opening worship service, Sunday afternoon, January 8 at 4.30 pm. Their new banner will read, "The House That Love Built," because they have felt the love that flowed from us, from the community and from Christians around the country who came to help. Pastor Adraine will preach from Hagai on "Better Than the Last." Our worship team will join theirs for special music, and Pastor Albert and I will be leading the communion service together. A huge dinner follows. Plus, we will re-launch our "Fifty on Fifty" program of sharing dinner in one another's homes. We believe in healing the racial divide in our city through the unity and love shown between Christians. This is a tangible way to express that hope.

Can We Trust Our Bibles?

Every year, some clever author or television network takes a new angle on an old heresy: telling us that we cannot trust our Bibles. In ever sensational ways, we are told the Bible was put together by a bunch of power hungry old guys who suppressed the brave thinkers. Or Jesus never said half what the Bible says he said. It makes us wonder, "How did we get our Bibles? How do we know they are accurate? How do we know this is what God said rather than what man said?"

We have a world expert in the reliability of Scripture coming to speak to us! Dr. Michael Kruger is a New Testament Professor and the President of Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte. He's going to be leading us in three powerful sessions, Friday night and Saturday morning January 20-21.

Michael J. Kruger, President and the Samuel C. Patterson Professor of New Testament and Early Christianity at Reformed Theological Seminary in Charlotte, NC.

Can We Hang Out More with Each Other?

Dr. Kruger's lessons are part of an all-church "Stay-Treat." What's a stay-treat? It's a retreat where you get to sleep in your own bed! We're wrapping the learning with food and fellowship. Dinner for all ages and stages Friday night at 6 pm then an ice-cream social after the Friday teaching. (Plus both nursery and separate children's lessons during the adult sessions). Saturday morning will feature snacks before and between Dr. Kruger's two presentations with a sandwich lunch to follow. All for a super-low price! Register now! Underwritten in part by our Ed Grant enrichment Fund.

Healing Through Christ-Centered Fellowship

by Jim Solomon, Associate Pastor of Pastoral Care and Prayer

A Sunday School teacher asked her children on the way to church service, "Why must we be quiet in church?" One little girl proudly replied, "Because people are sleeping!" I trust that didn't happen while I delivered the message at FPC on January 1! Whether or not you were able to join us then, I'd like to share some encouragement regarding how we might practice on weekdays what we learn on weekends with you now.

In my sermon message, we considered, at a time of New Year's resolutions, the most popular of which usually involves dieting, four items on the menu of a healthy diet for growing Christ-followers based on Acts 2: 42-47. One of the items included healing, causing us to ask how we can be healed of ailments if nobody knows we have them except ourselves! What is true of physical illness is true of emotional, psychological, mental, relational and spiritual illness as well. If nobody knows about your sickness, you won't be given anything that may heal you of it!

What is your sickness? Perhaps it is something that has been hidden in the darkness of your heart that needs to be exposed to the Light of God's Word in the midst of truly Christ-centered fellowship. James tells us, "Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed." (James 5:16a, NIV)

It's easy to correlate prayer with healing while never asking what confession has to do with it. As a former accountant, I sometimes find it humorous that the Lord gives me "equations" to help me understand his timeless truths in an easy way. I'd like to share one with you here: Vulnerability + Accountability = Possibility. If your life is falling apart, it may be a result of not surrendering something to the One who can put it back together. (Colossians 1: 17) Yet, he can't do his part if you won't do yours. If you won't open up to somebody about something that is keeping you from looking up, then you will eventually fall down. This is why confession is critical before we can be free from all things that are detrimental and as a result, rise above what would hold us below in our thoughts and actions, growing not only in God's peace but also in God's power released in post-confession prayer. "The prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective." (James 5: 16b, NIV)

Why waste more time managing the perception others have of you when you can be real with others so that Christ can heal you even through others? May the joy of loving one another into obedience of him be full in our walk with him! (John 15: 11-12)

The service will feature internationally known speaker, Dr. Tony Evans. We believe that the peace and well being of our city requires the churches of Christ Jesus to cover our town with a blanket of prayer and unity in Christ. We want 5000 people to attend!

This is a major endeavor and features unprecedented cooperation among the churches. I urge us all to attend. Change your plans, skip the kids' activities, forego other entertainments. This will be a historic evening!

Respect BR

As our city strives to find its future after a year of racial tension and flooding, one of our ministry partners has a unique plan for weaving us all together. Respect BR is an initiative created by Manners of the Heart (their offices are in our Sanctuary building!). It's a plan for each of us, in practical ways, to daily show respect and love to our neighbors. Consider getting on board by taking the pledge of respect. You can find it at mannersoftheheart.org.

As you can see, in 2017 our church life starts strong with these major events. I'm so thankful to be your pastor in these important days.

January Perspectives

Perspectives is a course that helps believers from all walks of life see how they can get threaded into God's story of redeeming people from every tribe, tongue and nation to himself. It is NOT a class about missions, but a course on how every believer can be intimately woven into the story of God using his people to be a blessing to all the peoples of the earth. This class will ruin you for the ordinary.

Classes meet weekly and begin Monday, January 9, 2017 at 6 pm. Contact Katy Cosby (katy@fpibr.org) to ensure a spot.
