ANNOUNCEMENTS

“A Beautiful and Daring Duel Over Death” is a new article by Gerrit at desiringgod.org. In this celebration of the resurrection, he contrasts two famous “skull scenes” from English literature: Hamlet in the graveyard and Herbert's graphic poem “Death.” Copies are available at the Connection Center.

Open Pews! There's room to spread out now that all pews are open. We hope this makes it easier to maintain social distance while still being able to sit with those in your “circle.” We love this move toward normalcy, even as, for a while longer, we continue to mask and limit the total number in each worship venue. And enjoy those cushions!

Twice a Week: Hurricane Relief Day Trips. Whitney Alexander leads a group of relief workers each Wednesday and Saturday. Everyone is welcome. Meet him in the church parking lot at 6.30 am. Bring work gloves! Also, relief items continue to be collected in the gym. Immediately needed items: contractor bags, buckets and cleaning supplies (Fabuloso and bleach).

Need a Pastor After Hours? Would you like to reach a pastor after hours? Please call the church office (387.0617) and press 5 to be connected to the pastor on call.

GATHERING TO PRAISE

Assisting Pastor: Barry Phillips

*Welcome and Call to Worship

From Psalm 86: 5-13

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy. When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Among the gods there is none like you, Lord; no deeds can compare with yours.

All the nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord; they will bring glory to your name.

For you are great and do marvelous deeds; you alone are God.

Teach me your way, LORD, that I may rely on your faithfulness; give me an undivided heart, that I may fear your name.

I will praise you, Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever.

For great is your love toward me; you have delivered me from the depths, from the realm of the dead.

Time with God's Word

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Philippians 2: 12-16

Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Inspired by Deuteronomy 32

Your Word falls like abundant rain. Your Spirit would refresh us and see us grow into beautiful branches bearing much fruit—fruit that fulfills your good will and feeds the nations with liberating, life-giving truth. But we have been far too comfortable in our parched and wilted condition. How foolish of us! Rather than offering the fruit of truth, we have pricked with the thorns of grumbling and vain arguments. Forgive us, we pray, and have mercy on us, O LORD. Nourish and fortify us that we might fulfill your good purpose and proclaim the greatness your name. Amen.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

INTERCESSION

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
