From Psalm 122 and Ephesians 2

I was glad when they said unto me,
“Let us go to the house of the LORD!”

Peace to you gathered church for in Christ you have access in one Spirit to the Father.

We are no longer strangers or aliens but are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God.

You are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets.

Christ Jesus himself is the cornerstone.

You are joined together in Christ.

We are a living temple in the Lord.

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Time with God’s Word

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Ephesians 4: 1-7, 11-16

I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ’s gift.

And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Time of Reflection

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

You tell us in your Word that we are your body, O Christ. The Holy Spirit connects us to you, our Head. He joins us to each other. But we have foolishly tried to live as isolated, disconnected parts. How immature of us! We are sorry. Grow us to maturity. Build us up in love. Empower us to do our part that we might reach unity in the faith and in our knowledge of you. Amen.
