Why Do We Mask? At First, we insist on masks at our gatherings. Is it inconvenient? Yes! Is their effectiveness debatable? Yes! But . . . 1) It's the law, 2) We respect the medical minds in our own congregation and 3) We love one another. We have members who are at risk, fellow worshipers who, for safety concerns, would not come if we wore no masks. Scripture (1 Cor. 8) clearly calls on those who have more freedom to inconvenience themselves for those who have less. Please, wear a mask inside and do it for love's sake.

*Welcome and Call to Worship

From Psalm 115

Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!

Our God is in the heavens; he does all that he pleases.

The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands.
They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see.

They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell.

Those who make them become like them; so do all who trust in them.

O Israel, trust in the LORD!

He is our help and our shield.

O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD!

He is our help and our shield.

You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!

He is our help and our shield.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Luke 5: 1-11

On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.” And Simon answered, “Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.” And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord.” For he and all who were with him were astonished at the catch of fish that they had taken, and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Your Word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path (Psalm 119: 103, 105).

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We confess, O LORD, that our eyes, minds and hearts have been downcast. In our observation of these present days and the thoughtless repetition of the routines of daily life we only see despair and impossibility. We are tempted to believe that what we see is all there is. We have listened to the wrong voices. We have lived in a small way. Help us to see the wonderful, miraculous surprises that await faithful obedience to your command. Help us to acknowledge the truth about our sinfulness and your perfection. We would see you in your holy temple and be woven into the tapestry of your glory. Amen.
