What Are We Doing About Masks? Our session has decided to ask worshippers to wear masks through May 23. A significant number of our attendees are still completing the vaccination process. As much as we all want to rip away these annoying coverings and sing out freely, we know that waiting just a bit longer allows anyone who wants to be immunized against COVID to do so. After May 23, we can each make our own personal decisions.

*Call to Worship

Based on Psalm 47

God has gone up with a merry noise; the LORD has ascended with the sound of a trumpet.

Clap your hands, all peoples; shout to God with the voice of joy.

The Son of God who came down has now gone up above the heavens.
This day, Christ has led the first fruits of our nature into heaven.

All that is good, all that endures in this earthly flesh has gone up!
Nothing is lost. Nothing is left behind except our mortal frailty.

So the memory of love now sundered,
Is more than memory; it is anticipation.

The dream of a body which works without pain, without weakness,
Is more than a dream; it is anticipation.

The hope that neglect and negation, harm and hurt, will cease,
Is more than hope; it is anticipation.

For Christ Jesus has gone up with a merry noise!
The Lord has ascended with a shout of triumph.
This ascension Sunday, let us worship the Lord!

Time with God’s Word

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Ecclesiastes 1: 1-3; 2: 1-11

The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.
What does man gain by all the toil
at which he toils under the sun?

I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy yourself.” But behold, this also was vanity. I said of laughter, “It is mad,” and of pleasure, “What use is it?” I searched with my heart how to cheer my body with wine—my heart still guiding me with wisdom—and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the children of man to do under heaven during the few days of their life. I made great works. I built houses and planted vineyards for myself. I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees. I made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees. I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house. I had also great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem. I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I got singers, both men and women, and many concubines, the delight of the sons of man.

So I became great and surpassed all who were before me in Jerusalem.

Also my wisdom remained with me. And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil. Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Lord Jesus, forgive us for our failure of imagination. Most days we content ourselves with but a trivial religion. We hardly realize the grandeur of your salvation: you are in heaven. Yet you are still man as well as God! You have taken our very humanity to the throne. You have entered the Holy of Holies on our behalf. You have presented yourself to the Father in our name and for our benefit. You have gone where no man has ever gone. Joined to you, we can go within the veil. We can come into the Father’s presence. We can enter your joy. Oh make us bold to stretch mind and heart toward the glory of your love. Amen.
