

Assurance of Pardon

From Acts 2: 37-40

Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.”

Pentecost Sunday

GATHERING TO PRAISE

Assisting Pastor: Whitney Alexander

*Welcome and Call to Worship

Today is Pentecost. The Church around the world gives thanks for the gift of the blessed Holy Spirit!

He is the Spirit of Christ. He shows us who Jesus is.

He is God who comes down to dwell within us.

He cries out within our hearts, “Abba, Father!”

He is the power to make us witnesses to Jesus Christ.

He brings forth fruit in our lives.

So today we bless the Holy Spirit as we worship the Triune God of Grace who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Time with God’s Word

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-18

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever.

That we may do all the words of this law.

Scriptural Call to Confession

From Acts 2: 22-24; 36

“Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know— this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. . . . Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Prayer of Confession

Blessed Holy Spirit, you are the Comforter. You lead us into all truth. You take the things of Jesus and give them to us. You enable us to understand the Word. You pray within us, directing us toward the Father. Your presence in our hearts is the guarantee of all that is to come. But how often we have ignored your gentle voice. How we have grieved you by our actions! We have tried to quench your heavenly flame by our sin, our inattention, our indifference, our distractions. Forgive us. Fan into flame once more the faith you created in us, for Jesus’ sake. Amen.
