The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Welcome and Call to Worship

From Hebrews 2

In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God should make the pioneer of our salvation perfect through what he suffered.

Both Jesus who makes people holy, and we who are made holy, are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call us his brothers and sisters!

Jesus prays, “I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters; in the assembly I will sing your praises.” And again he prays, “Here am I, and the children God has given me.”

Since the children have flesh and blood, Jesus too shared in our humanity.

So that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil— and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

For this reason Jesus had to be made like us, fully human in every way, in order that he might become our merciful and faithful high priest, making atonement for our sins.

This morning, we join our voices to his voice, as he sings his Father’s praises in our midst!

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Psalm 22: 21-31

I will tell of your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him,
and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
For he has not despised or abhorred
the affliction of the afflicted,
and he has not hidden his face from him,
but has heard, when he cried to him.

From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will perform before those who fear him.
The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the LORD!
May your hearts live forever!

All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD,
and all the families of the nations
shall worship before you.
For kingship belongs to the LORD,
and he rules over the nations.

All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
even the one who could not keep himself alive.
Posterity shall serve him;
it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation;
they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn,
that he has done it.

These sacred writings are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

For all Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, that the person of God may be complete, equipped for every good work (2 Timothy 3: 15-17).

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We come to you, O God, having heard the extraordinary story of how you shared in our humanity and made atonement for our sins. From your own lips, Lord Jesus, the cry of dereliction echoes. You were forsaken and pierced. Despised and rejected. All this for our sake. But still we struggle with evil. We think, speak and behave in detestable ways. Have mercy on us. Spirit of God embolden and empower us to live faithfully and obediently in the full knowledge that, “It is finished.” Through Christ our Savior, it is accomplished. We stand in awe before you in the midst of the congregation and praise your holy name. Amen.
