*Welcome and Call to Worship

From Jonah 2

I called to the LORD out of my distress.

And he answered me! He heard my voice.

O LORD my God, you brought up my life from the pit,

When my life was fainting away, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came to you.

Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love.

But I with the voice of thanksgiving will make a sacrifice of praise to you; What I have experienced, I will declare: "Salvation belongs to the LORD!"

PROCLAIMING THE WORD

Time with God's Word

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Jonah 4:1-11

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. And he prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from disaster. Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." And the LORD said, "Do you do well to be angry?"

Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city. Now the LORD God appointed a plant and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the plant, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God appointed a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint. And he asked that he might die and said, "It is better for me to die than to live." But God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry for the plant?" And he said, "Yes, I do well to be angry, angry enough to die." And the LORD said, "You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow, which came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than 120,000 persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?"

For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction,

That through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Dear Father, I heartily affirm with your Word, “You are gracious God and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.” I also confess that I too often want mercy in my case, but judgment for others. I confess that I have not rejoiced with those who rejoice. Nor wept with those who weep. I am guilty of envy. I have taken pleasure in the misfortunes of others, savoring their failures. I have resented those who bask in grace. But there is no life in such a mean outlook. It cuts me off from love. Forgive me. Cleanse me. Restore unto me the joy of your salvation, in others’ lives as well as my own. For Jesus’ sake, amen.
