GATHERING TO PRAISE

Welcome and Call to Worship

From Jonah 2

I called to the LORD out of my distress.
And he answered me! He heard my voice.

O LORD my God, you brought up my life from the pit,
When my life was fainting away, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came to you.

Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love.
But I with the voice of thanksgiving will make a sacrifice of praise to you;

“What I have experienced, I will declare: Salvation belongs to the LORD!”

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Jonah 1:1-16

Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil has come up before me." But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god. And they hurled the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep. So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call out to your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we may not perish."

And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. Then they said to him, "Tell us on whose account this evil has come upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. He said to them, "Pick me up and hurl me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you, for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you." Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. Therefore they called out to the LORD, "O LORD, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood, for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you." So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.

For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction,

That through endurance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

I hear you, Lord Jesus. Just behind me. On my heels. I ran from you seeking my own way. I took off down paths of selfishness, petty revenge, withering scorn, clever cynicism, boring greed, manufactured pride and boorish lust. Everything got tangled. Each step away from you did not bring light and life, but bitterness and darkness. I grew less myself, less alive. But still I ran on. And still you pursued me. Now at last, I stop and turn. There you are! I'm sorry. I'm lost. I can't run anymore. Oh, pick me up and take me home. Amen.
