Welcome and Call to Worship

From John 11

How well we know the complaint of Martha and Mary, “Lord if you had been here!”

So often, it seems you delay. You wait while we languish. Our prayers seem unheeded.

Our hearts cry out, “Why did you let this happen?”

Yet we know the real question is “What have you done about all this?”

So with Martha and Mary, we listen to your reply, “I am the resurrection and the life, the one who believes in me, though he dies, yet shall he live. Do you believe this?”

And amidst the tumult of the world, we come in faith to worship, to say, as Martha did, “Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world to save the lost.” In this hope, we rise to worship Christ Jesus the living Lord.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

John 11: 1-7; 11b-15; 17-27

Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill. So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So, when he heard that Lazarus was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was. Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again . . . Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him." The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he meant taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died, and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world."

These are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.

And that by believing you may have life in his name.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Based on Advent Lyrics, 9th c.

Gracious Lord Jesus, creator of the world, builder of the House of God, help the heart-sore. Have mercy on your servants. Think on our sorrows: how we stumble on, weak at heart, wandering hopelessly. The house of our lives is in ruins. Yet you are the great Craftsman. You restore what is broken. You straighten out the twists of our transgressions. You rebuild what seemed beyond repair. Blessed and glorious are you, who mounted the cross we built in order to rebuild your world.

Silent Confession

Assurance of Pardon

INTERCESSION

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.
