GATHERING TO PRAISE

Welcome and Call to Worship

From Psalm 118

Shouts of joy and victory resound in the tents of the righteous:
The LORD's right hand has done mighty things!

We will not die but live, and will proclaim what the LORD has done.
The LORD has chastened us severely, but he has not given us over to death.

Open for us the gates of the righteous; we will enter and give thanks to the LORD.

We give you thanks, O Christ, for you answered us; you have become our salvation.

The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; the LORD has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes.
The LORD has done it this very day; let us rejoice and be glad.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Ephesians 2:13–22

But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

Speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into Christ, our head.

He makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Oh dear Father, the words we use! How we have drawn boundaries of division. As children sitting in the back seat with siblings: “She crossed the line! He touched me!” Down the streets of our city: “This is not where you’re supposed to shop!” In politics: “I can’t even talk to you anymore.” In faith: “People doing that can’t be real believers!” We “other” people all the time. But this is not your plan! You have shed blood to bring down the walls of hostility. You have created one new humanity in Jesus. Forgive us when we fracture what you united. Open our eyes to see others as you do, with cross-shaped love. Amen.
