GATHERING TO PRAISE

Assisting with Worship: Jaime Carnaggio

Welcome and Call to Worship

Epiphany means appearing. What was hidden gets made known. On Epiphany Sunday we remember three early ways Jesus' identity was revealed.

Soon after his birth, the light of the star led the wise men to Jesus. As they opened their gifts, the King of all the world was revealed to the nations.

At the beginning of his ministry, in the waters of his baptism, the Father's voice revealed Jesus as the Beloved Son.

At Christ's first miracle, in the water made wine, the new creation was revealed at the wedding feast.

So in the appearing of Jesus in the flesh, by the light of the star, the voice of the Father and the turning of the ordinary into the extraordinary, we see revealed Immanuel, God with us.

In Christ, the best is yet to come. So at the start of a new year, we rise to sing Alleluia, Amen, come Lord Jesus!

Affirmation of Faith

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
And born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
And is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
The holy catholic Church,
The communion of saints,
The forgiveness of sins,
The resurrection of the body,
And the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

John 2: 1-12

On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.
