GATHERING TO PRAISE

Assisting with Worship: Colton Underwood

*Welcome and Call to Worship

Based on 1 Thessalonians 1

Grace and peace to you, Church. We give thanks to God for you.

We have prayed constantly for you.

We give thanks to our God and Father for your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

May the wonderful news of Jesus come to us anew today.

May it come not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction.

May our faith in God go forth everywhere. May the Lord's message ring out!

Let us turn away from all our idols and serve the Lord our God only.

With patience and faith let us wait for the risen Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

In gratitude for our deliverance from sin, in hope of Christ's return to set all things right, and now in this present moment, we worship the living and true God.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

1 Thessalonians 2: 1-12

For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you was not in vain. But though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we had boldness in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the midst of much conflict. For our appeal does not spring from error or impurity or any attempt to deceive, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts. For we never came with words of flattery, as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is witness. Nor did we seek glory from people, whether from you or from others, though we could have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother taking care of her own children. So, being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us.

For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil: we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our conduct toward you believers. For you know how, like a father with his children, we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.

But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

We have received from your hand abundant gifts, most faithful Lord. But like the unwise servant, we have taken those gifts and buried them in the earth. No investment. No return. No sharing the peace and grace that is ours with our neighbors who need it. Forgive us, we pray, for isolating ourselves. For closing our eyes and pretending to be blind. For our selfishness. Make us humble and generous servants after the pattern of your beloved Son, our Lord. Amen.
