GATHERING TO PRAISE

Assisting Pastor: Scott Graham

Welcome and Call to Worship

From Isaiah 42 & Psalm 2

Hear the Father say, “Look at my Son, my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights.”

We see the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descending upon him like a dove.

He will bring forth justice to the nations.

A bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench.

Where our first parents failed and Israel proved faithless, he has conquered.

He has fulfilled the righteous requirement of the Law!

O, kiss the Son and bow before him.

Blessed are all who take refuge in him!

Scriptural Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful Father, we confess that we have often grasped for bread that cannot satisfy, sought glory that was not ours to take, and put your word to the test. Quick to justify our sins and slow to see the rot, our iniquities would rightly lead us to death. We come to you, therefore, pleading nothing but the righteousness of Christ. His works, not our polluted garments. His obedience, not our disobedience. His humble submission, not our prideful rebellion. Forgive us. Restore us. Amend our ways. Make us fit to be called “sons of the King.” Amen.

Prayer for the Holy Spirit

Luke 3:21-22, 4:1-15

Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heavens were opened, and the Holy Spirit descended on him in bodily form, like a dove; and a voice came from heaven, “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.”

And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days. And when they were ended, he was hungry. The devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread.” And Jesus answered him, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone.” And the devil took him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, and said to him, “To you I will give all this authority and their glory, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whom I will. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours.” And Jesus answered him, “It is written,

“You shall worship the Lord your God,
and him only shall you serve.”

And he took him to Jerusalem and set him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written,

“He will command his angels concerning you,
to guard you,’

and

“On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.”

And Jesus answered him, “It is said, ‘You shall not put the Lord your God to the test.’” And when the devil had ended every temptation, he departed from him until an opportune time.

And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a report about him went out through all the surrounding country. And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

The secret things belong to the LORD our God.
But what has been revealed belongs to us, and to our children forever. That we may do all the words of this law.
